NORWICH ART SCHOOL.

The Norwich Art school begins its 22nd year today, and all students desiring to enter the classes should make early application for places.

The classes in drawing, painting and design will meet daily, Saturdays excepted, while on Saturday morning instruction will be given to the children's class which in the past has proved so popular.

Last year's exhibition showed results of a very high quality and no doubt the coming year's work will prove up to the high standard maintained by the school.

A special feature this year will be the Tuesday evening class, 7.30 to 9.30. This will enable those who are prevented from working in the daytime to study drawing, design, metal work, composition and illustration.

Scholarships and prizes are awarded annually for meritorious work. See adv.

BREED THEATER.

The big sensational and highly thrilling motion picture entitled "The Switchman's Tower" attracted an unusually large and attentive audience to the Breed last evening, and the great gathering was moved as one person to either tears or laughter by the situations brought about by the spirited unfolding of the plot. There are some scenes in this splendid story of a humble railroad man's life that have never been equaled in motion pictures on any screen.

The thrilling scene where the distracted mother races with a locomotive in her effort to snatch her child from before the oncoming monster, the tender watching of the event from his tower, being unable to leave his post of duty. All considered, it is a picture that must be seen more than once to comprehend the many complicated situations and appreciate the risk of life involved in making this master production.

The Biograph offers on this bill a pure drama entitled "Heads and Tails." This depicts one of the prettiest war dramas yet presented and includes the complete burning of a handsome colonial mansion in a southern state. The plot is very deep and is enhanced by faultless acting and exquisite scenic backgrounds.

THE ORIENT IN PROVIDENCE.

Today, Tuesday, Sept. 26, will be China day at the Orient in Providence exposition, and a special programme having special reference to that country has been prepared. In the early afternoon there is to be a Chinese chorus and procession, and late in the afternoon a Chinese feast. In the latter there will be shown the table manners and customs of the Chinese and some of the dishes which are considered delicacies. This will be in the China scene and a group of missionaries and costumed stewards will sit around the table in Chinese fashion. There is to be a supper for the China stewards of whom there are more than 250, in the banquet room of the Orient restaurant. In the evening a mandarin procession to the Buddhist temple is to be a feature. A large number wearing Chinese dress will be in the line.

Rev. Arthur J. Brown, D. D., of New York, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, will be the principal speaker at the exposition on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, Sept. 26 and 27. He will deliver addresses in the lecture hall at 3 o'clock each evening. Dr. Brown, who is a speaker of great power and eloquence, is one of the best informed men in the world upon the subject of missions.

It Makes Wrinkles

Worry over ill-health does your head no good, and merely causes wrinkles, that make you look older than you are.

If you are sick, don't worry, but go about it to make yourself well. To do this we repeat the words of thousands of other former sufferers from womanly ills, similar to yours, when we say,

Take VIBURN-O

It is a wonderful female remedy, as you will admit if you try it.

Directions for its use are printed in six languages with every bottle. Price $1.25 at druggists.

MY PRAYER.

Let me be true enough to meet each honest eye.
If a friend whose sorrowed heart has been under
Asks me for comfort where in truth there can be none,
Then let me grasp his groping hand—and kindly lie.

And if my
